BUDDHISM

Type of Organization: Vipassana Hawai'i is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, with strong ties to its parent organizations in Southeast Asia, and was founded 25 years ago to promote the teaching of Buddhist meditation to new generations of students in Hawai'i.

Services Offered:

- The Hawai'i Insight Meditation Center (HIMC) is envisioned as a retreat hermitage and refuge; a place designed on an intimate scale and serving as a gathering place for contemplative practice away from the hectic turmoil of modern society.
- Vipassana Hawai'i's MettaDana Project collects charitable donations that are distributed through Kyaswa Monastery in the Sagaing Hills area of Upper Burma, as well as to partner organizations working along the Thai-Burma border to provide health, educational and related activities for local Burmese communities in need.
- Dhamma in Prisons- programs that introduce mindful meditation to inmates in prison.

Fees: Cost varies by retreat; up to $600

Phone: 808-889-0567 Email: information@vipassanahawaii.org

Wood Valley Temple Retreat & Guest House

Type of Organization: Nechung Dorje Drayang Ling is a 501(c)3 non-profit religious organization.

Synopsis: Nechung Dorje Drayang Ling "Immutable Island of Melodious Sound" is a Buddhist temple and retreat located on 25 acres in Wood Valley, the Ka'u District of the Island of Hawai'i. Established in 1973 by the Venerable Nechung Rinpoche, Nechung Dorje Drayang Ling is a center for the dissemination of the Buddhist teachings. Wood Valley Temple, as it is known locally, has a guesthouse and retreat facilities. Guest rooms have an Asian Pacific decor and original works of art grace the facility. Select the room with your favorite theme for a relaxing getaway or book the full facility for a group workshop or retreat.

Services Offered:

- Retreats with visiting lamas of all four lineages of Tibetan Buddhism are conducted at the temple several times a year. These programs are on various aspects of Buddhist philosophy & meditation. Subjects cover all stages of practice in Buddhist Sutra and Tantra. From the important groundwork of correct motivation, altruistic thought to the relative and ultimate views of reality, the levels of practice vary according to the person.

The courses are held on weekends, but often span into the weekdays, and sometimes month long retreats take place with 4 sessions a day devoted to meditation and teaching instruction. Traditionally, in such gatherings, lamas give the verbal transmission and explanation of teachings and practices, along with bestowing empowerments for Tantric practices when applicable. Reservation: Please call us at 808.928.8539 or email us at atnechung@aloha.net.

ECKANKAR

The teachings of ECK define the nature of Soul. Each person is Soul, a particle of God sent into the lower worlds (including earth) to gain spiritual experience. Purified by the spiritual exercises, he comes into contact with the Holy Spirit. His goal is spiritual freedom in this lifetime, after which he becomes a Co-worker with God, both here and in the next world. Karma and reincarnation are primary beliefs. Key to the ECK teachings is the Mahanta, the Living ECK Master. He has the special ability to act as both Inner and Outer Master for ECK students. He is the prophet of Eckankar, given respect but not worship. He teaches the sacred name of God, HU, which lifts one spiritually into the Light and Sound of God, the ECK. The ECK (the Holy Spirit) purifies one of karma (sin), making it possible for him to accept the full love of God in this lifetime. Then he gains wisdom, charity, and freedom. Personal experience with the Light and Sound of God is the cornerstone of Eckankar. Of all the religions on earth today, Eckankar offers the most direct teachings on the Light and Sound of God. These twin pillars are missing in whole or in part from the rest. People who truly find these two aspects of God undergo a complete spiritual change. Life becomes fresh and new again, as it was in early childhood.

ISLAM

Type of Organization: The mission of the Doris Duke Foundation for Islamic Art (DDFIA) is to promote the study and understanding of Islamic arts and cultures.

Synopsis: The management and preservation of Doris Duke's former home in Honolulu, Hawai'i, known as Shangri La which today serves as a center for Islamic arts and cultures. Shangri La is one of three properties which Doris Duke requested be opened for public visitation and used for educational programs.

Programs Offered:

Tours- Guided tours of Shangri La feature the public rooms of the main residence and portions of the grounds.

Events

Scholars, visual and performing artists, and noted professionals are invited to present lectures, performances, and panel discussions among other types of events at Shangri La. These afternoon and evening events are frequently open to the public with free admission, however seating is limited and advance reservations are required. Events typically include an open house, refreshments and shuttle transportation originating from nearby Kapi'olani Community College.

DDFIA also co-sponsors offsite programs including free public lectures, panel discussions, film festivals and performing arts presentations in partnership with a number of institutions including the Honolulu Museum of Art, the University of Hawai'i, and the East West Center.

Fees: Admission on Shangri La's guided tour is by reservation only and advance reservations are required. All tours start at the Honolulu Museum Art (900 South Beretania Street, between Victoria Street and Ward Avenue) and visitors are transported to Shangri La by van. Tickets are $25.00, which includes van transportation to Shangri La, as well as admission to the Honolulu Museum of Art's permanent exhibitions. Discounted tickets are available for $20.00 to Hawai'i residents with proof of local residency.

Visit Honolulu Museum of Art to learn more and reserve your tickets or call (808) 532-3852.

Spiritualist Church

The Honolulu Church of Light is a spiritualist church focused on manifesting peace through love and healing. As spiritualists, we honor the evolutionary nature of human consciousness and embrace the Creator as the Omnipresence of Light, the All That Is. As a healing ministry, we provide a safe space for all to celebrate life, to awaken spiritually, and to heal on all four levels of human experience: spiritual, mental, emotional and physical.

As a "church without walls," the Honolulu Church of Light serves the needs of tens of thousands of lightworkers worldwide through our weekly internet healing service webcasts <http://www.honoluluchurchoflight.org/> service begins: Sunday 9:00 a.m.
